If you arrive by plane (Lyon-St Exupery airport):

- > take a taxi (about 50 Euros)
- > or take the tramway shuttle to the Lyon Part Dieu railway station (and see below)

If you arrive by train

- > from Lyon Part Dieu railway station : take the tramway line T1 (direction "IUT-Feyssine") up to the station "La Doua - Gaston Berger", or take the tramway line T4 (direction "La Doua - Gaston Berger") up to the station "La Doua - Gaston Berger".
- > from Lyon Perrache railway station : take the subway (line A, direction "Vaulx-en-Velin la Soie") up to the station "Charpennes". Then take the tramway (line T1 or T4, direction "IUT-Feyssine" or "La Doua - Gaston Berger") up to the station "La Doua - Gaston Berger".

From the tramway station, walk to the north entry of the building "Gregoire Mendel" (see red dots in the image below). The Laboratoire de Biométrie et Biologie Évolutive (UMR CNRS 5558) is at the 2nd floor. There is an entryphone at the entry of the lab. Compose number 044 to call the secretary.
