Seminar "modelling in pharmacotherapeutics"

Published on 7 September 2011

A seminar on modelling in pharmacotherapeutics entitled "[Mathematical Modelling in Pharmacotherapy: Past, Present and Future]" is organised by ADCAPT Service Pharmacie, Groupement Hospitalier de Gériatrie des HCL and UMR CNRS 5558, Laboratoire de Biométrie et Biologie Evolutive, Université Claude Bernard Lyon 1.

The day will focused on the use of models and other quantitative approaches for optimizing drugs delivery in clinical practice. The principles of past, present and futures, actual and potential applications of modelling methods in daily clinical practice will be presented as well as their advantages and limitations.
