

The LBBE organizes the 2012 edition of the workshop Statistics for Post Genomics Data (SMPGD). This workshop is an annual meeting dedicated to statistical methods for post genomic data analysis. The aim of the workshop is to present works from mathematical to applied statistics, but also new areas in high throughput biology that could need new statistical developments, or new statistical methodologies that could be applied to genomic data.

For more details : [<http://smpgd2012.univ-lyon1.fr/>
-> <http://smpgd2012.univ-lyon1.fr/>]